The school

At Phoenix Arch we value and respect children as individuals, we adopt a nurturing, caring and united approach to support all children to succeed and achieve in their learning. We encourage children to form positive relationships, know what their rights are and take responsibility for their role within the school and the wider community. Our vision is one of an environment encompassing a creative, exciting and inspirational learning community.

The Role

Phoenix Arch School has an exciting opportunity for a dynamic, enthusiastic Speech and Language Therapist wishing to work in a primary-aged special needs setting.

The successful candidate will manage a small caseload of children up to 56, from assessment to discharge. You will deliver individual and small group sessions to pupils on your caseload, as well as overseeing class based interventions such as Attention Autism, Colourful Semantics and Social Skills group across the school. You will work collaboratively with teaching staff, modelling activities and working in class to support children to transfer skills within the classroom environment. There will also be opportunities to get involved in whole school activities and deliver whole-school training.

We offer a supportive working environment where staff are encouraged to contribute to the school community, whilst developing their practice. Regular Clinical Supervision will form part of the role to ensure that you are supported in the development of your skills and keeping up to date on current practice and research.

The Person

- Do you share our vision for children to fulfil their potential at school and in the wider community and believe that successful learning is achieved through a nurturing, caring and united approach?
- Do you want to work in a small culturally diverse school, where children form positive relationships, know their rights, take responsibility and excel?
- Do you have at least 3 years postgraduate Speech and Language Therapy experience working with children who have language and communication difficulties?
- Do you have excellent interpersonal skills and able to work with a range of professionals?

Brent Schools are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. Successful applicants will be required to undergo a DBS check.
