Spring Term Newsletter

27.03.2026

Dear Parents and Carers,

What a fantastic and incredibly busy Spring Term it has been at Phoenix Arch. Our children have experienced a rich, engaging and meaningful curriculum, underpinned by our values: Kind, Curious, Creative and Collaborative.

Throughout the term, visitors have consistently commented on the high levels of engagement across the school. This reflects the dedication of our staff and the strength of our provision. Personal development is carefully planned and embedded within the curriculum, supporting children to develop confidence, independence, communication and emotional regulation through a wide range of meaningful experiences.

A key strength of the school is how learning is brought to life through themed weeks, enrichment opportunities, assemblies and real life experiences. Thank you to our parents for your continued support in attending events and working in partnership with us.

Our Celebration of Art and Music was a wonderful event and a proud moment for the school community. As part of our Artsmark journey, it reflected our commitment to inclusive and meaningful creative opportunities for all children. The children engaged through artwork, musical performances and poetry recitals, each contributing in their own unique way.

We were incredibly proud of every child. At Phoenix Arch, we recognise that small steps are big successes. For some children, joining in, performing or sharing their work represented significant personal achievement. These moments showed growing confidence, creativity and self expression. Families also valued seeing the process behind the learning, not just the final outcomes, which is central to our approach. Thank you to our incredible staff, children and families for making this such a successful term. We wish all those celebrating Easter, whether in the Western or Orthodox Christian traditions, a very happy Easter. Have a restful break and we look forward to welcoming you back for another exciting term ahead.
